INTRODUCTION

The title Cosmology Newslink was formulated out of the need to fit together intrarelated subjects which may or may not have bearings on each other and perhaps leading to the answers or conclusions of some of them if not all of earth's mysteries; in which case this magazine has done its work.

Our title was suggested by Mr. Patrick Dineen, of Co. Kerry Ireland, we supplied the LINK.

I also urge all outlets, suppliers, therefore to please accept these emergency magazines, and still remit for them. I do hope this has not lessened your enthusiasm for this magazine, that you all showed when NUMBER ONE and TWO hit the scene; and will continue to take the progress and the digress of CNK all in your stride. Experimental colour pictures in this issue, have now been improved to almost 100% definition for the NEXT issue. Hoping to have your attention at all times.

PHILOSOPHICAL VIEWPOINT ON UFOs

THE INNER MEANING BEHIND THE FLYING SAUCERS

By Fred O Gardner FRGS.FIEC

Continuing...

In my judgement, regardless of all the sensationalism or 'out of this world' character of Flying Saucers and the obvious difficulties involved in investigation and especially in the interpretation of our findings, to say nothing of general apathy or official denigration or professional facetiousness, there must be something in it all. We are not all daft!

To dismiss the whole phenomenon as a 'load of nonsense' would be perverse and foolish. It is my conviction, based on a reasonable objective investigation so far there is something.

The problem is indisputable. Many others share this idea. As you dig and dig and sift and sift and persevere, notwithstanding all the criticism and opposition, hidden as well as overt, then you begin to become aware of the truly phenomenal aspects of the situation.

Therefore, there are two approaches, 1. Spiritual and 2. Scientific. The mistake is, that people adhere to either or one or the other when the real solution is, both should be wedded together - pure spirituality and true science, complementing and co-operating as one unit. These two should not be allowed to function singly or separately any longer, but they must work together as one in the interests of the whole.

It is not necessary in this article, to regale you with an endless stream of sightings of UFOs, not that there aren't any, elsewhere in this journal sighting reports are given. Those who are merely interested in repetitive sightings are going round merely in a circle and will get nowhere. The point is, is there an explanation to this baffling yet exciting sky phenomenon? It is my contention that there is! We do well to consider these signs and see what they portend for all of us, that is, if we are sufficiently open-minded, or at least, give a fair consideration of the case.

I quote from a publication of the Axminster Light Centre, "Ancient literature, the Bible, included, give accounts of visitations to Earth by celestial beings who brought help, wisdom and sometimes, warnings, to Earth in past ages, and this alert the more thoughtful among us as to their ultimate purpose here. For a period of nearly 30 years, an analysis of reports from all over the world shows that these craft have flown lower and lower, and some have landed, sometimes nocturnally but also in broad daylight. Their crews have been seen to take water from rivers and lakes and mountain streams, and contacts claim to have been made in isolated regions." (For those who wish documented evidence on this, I recommend the book THE HUMANIDS, compiled by Charles Bowen, who is also the editor of Flying Saucer Review).

"Alleged messages from these contacts have their prototypes in the communications delivered to the prophets in the Old Testament, and Christian believers are being alerted unofficially as to the possibility of these 'signs in the skies' bearing some relationship to the prophecies in Matthew, chapter 24, and also in the Revelations of St. John."

"Planet Earth is in a grave state of turmoil unprecedented in its present history. The senseless, cruel, and wanton destruction of large sections of humanity continues, to say nothing of animal life, aquatic life, plant life and natural life upon which the human race depends for its very existence. The calculated enslavement of the vast masses of those who survive the wars also continues, and the interests of a powerful few have now expanded to a point in history where the Planet could be destroyed by nuclear war in the matter of minutes and the struggling human race become a holocaust."

All powers, national and international, secular and religious, seem incapable of creating a lasting peace on Earth and goodwill towards men. Men have created tremendous and vast opportunities for travel, for culture, knowledge in every sphere and material and spiritual fulfilment-and also deadly weapons which place humanity under the shadow of a premature and agonising death.

AMERICA: St. Albans. Object seen was fish shaped. Described only as being of a "pretty good size" Two observers said it was orange in colour. An observer Mrs. H. Masters of 215 Rcan St, said the object hovered over the St. Albans area for several minutes and then vanished. (report VIA Dr. Frank E. Starnes (NICUFO USA).

God or satan?
Electric or magnetic?

UFO TALK

BY IEO V. BARTSCH

A Forum on general topics of interest, in every issue.

Satan said he goes to and fro in the earth and up and down on it (Job 1:7) So do the earth's magnetic force, to and fro from one pole to the other.

Angels are of various ranks and endowments ( Col:1:16 & Jude. 9) Satan was an angel and good and bad angels will battle. Sometimes we have magnetic storms (or battles) which disrupt radio and TV. Some come from sun-spots when electrons (amber) drawn from the sun towards earth's magnetic poles which cause auroral displays, and many other types which are still a mystery. Luke 21:11-Fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven; Fearful to the unbeliever, great signs to the believer. Jesus did cast out a legion (a vast number) of unclean spirits from one man who then regained his right mind-Mark 5:8-13

Sometimes electric shock treatments cure strange forces of the human mind. Jesus said "Lay hands on the sick...and they shall recover. Yes if you have HIS amber or perfect power in you. Sometimes miraculous healings are felt like some type of electric force throughout the human body.

How did satan show Jesus the world in torment of time? Luke 4:5 The magnetic force-field circles the world in a moment of time. Electricity creates magnetic force yet the magnetic force can attract or influence electricity, or its fire, Satan brought the fire of God down on Job's sheep and consumed them. Job 1:16- (by permission from God).

In Rev. 13:13 the anti-Christ whose number is 666 (verse 18) maketh fire come down from heaven. Here we are told just what to watch for. How strong is satan? Luke 10:17-If you accept Christ, satan is as subject unto you because Christ made this possible, Col:2:15 - Satan was once prince of the powers of the air, but now only through people of disobedience-EPH.2:2. "And he that believeth on him (Christ) shall not be confounded" 1st Peter 2:6. James 4:7 says "resist the devil and he will flee from you. So you see, satan is a coward and subject to man. Yet the great loaders of confusion try to hold their flocks by awesome fear of satan and some even give him all the glory of God's UFO signs and wonders. Satan is the father of LIES, and lying wonders, so his UFO are delusions, hallucinations and hoaxes, to cover up the real. Remember that God creates all things, and God said he (not satan) will show wonders in heaven above. (Acts. 2:19). And God hath not given us the spirit of fear. 2nd. Tim. 1:7. Yet man, by his own choice will let satan deceive the whole world, REV. 2:9, by the only way satan and that is by fear, instead of the Gospel which means "Good News", or by the great brilliant men who you would least expect to be deceived by, or false apostles of Christ-2nd Cor. 11:13 and Matt. 7:22 who deceived even themselves, or by magnetic influence, attraction and force or power to attract, personal charm or allure.

Millions were spent to cover up the unexplained mystery men dressed in black have been going around trying to frighten the believers of today's signs and wonders. Jesus said "When these things begin to come to pass, then look up" (Luke; 21:11-28) (Now when Jesus says "look up" then you can be sure satan will do anything- (through man) to keep you from looking up.

(Looking for life among the stars-"Science Horizons" Continuing).....

Nonetheless, Mariner 9 has added important new findings to man's knowledge of Mars. Near the south pole one of the few areas where Mariner's cameras were able to peer through the huge dust storm that obscured much of the planet the surface is also remarkably smooth, leading some scientists to theorize that the region was scoured clean by glaciers as the polar cap grew during Martian winters and then receded again. If glaciers were indeed responsible, their presence would indicate that there is more water in the polar cap (which is composed largely of frozen carbon dioxide, or dry ice) than anyone had supposed.

Exobiologists are excited by the finding of 4 craters that they believe are extinct volcanoes, because they think that most of the amino-acid-building gases in the earth's primordial atmosphere were belched forth by volcanoes. Whether or not Mars is eventually proved lifeless exobiologists are looking forward to investigating Jupiter, and perhaps taking another look at Venus for signs of living organisms. Although few expect to find life on the face of either planet (atmospheric pressure on Jupiter's still-unfathomed surface would probably be too high, and temperatures at the surface of Venus are more than 800 f., hot enough to melt lead) there is a possibility that organisms may have evolved at levels of the atmosphere where temperatures and pressures are moderate. But even the failure to discover biological activity on the other planets circling the sun will not discourage the life seekers, they will then turn their full attention to the stars. For they are certain that given the right conditions the creation of life anywhere in the universe is more the rule than a miraculous accident.

In their persistent belief that extraterrestrial organisms exist, modern scientists are supported by laboratory experiments that have already brought man close to understanding the secrets of the origin of life. According to some theories, that process began shortly after the formation of the earth some 4-6 billion years ago. The primordial planet was still enveloped in an atmosphere of ammonia, methane (page 17)

THE ETERNAL MAN.

All over the world archeological expeditions and excavations are pushing back the date of the origin of man. On April 16th, 1972, a leading British newspaper published a report of an excavation in southern Africa which showed that Man originated there 100,000 years ago – a direct clash with the traditional view that he evolved in the Near East after 40,000 B.C. In 1969 a Congress held in the Paris UNESCO building advanced the theory that Man existed more than 2,000,000 years ago. More recently excavations in the Chad (northern Central Africa) have revealed men who were 6,000,000 years old.

Louis Pauwels and Jacques Bergier, authors of the provocative bestseller MORNING OF THE MAGICIANS, bring together a vast collection of facts and theories which show that we cannot apply Darwin's theory of evolution to Man. The more we search the more we push back the date of Man's origin. There is clear evidence of advanced and sophisticated cultures thousands of years before the accepted origin of homo sapiens. In 1968 Koriun Megertchian, from the Armenian Geological Institute, discovered the oldest factory in the world at Medzamor. It is the revelation of a prehistoric advanced technology founded by men who possessed scientific and industrial knowledge from a remote age.

The "impossible" maps of Piri Reis demolish the traditional view that the ignorant Cromagon Man lived on earth 10,000 years ago. They show that 10,000 years ago valuable information was available about America. They show clear and accurate degrees of longitude and latitude – something our culture only achieved two centuries ago. It is likely that these ancient maps could not have been drawn up without the advantage of aviation.

Consider the ancient observatory and stone calendar, Stonehenge. The massive stones had to be erected to the nearest inch – an almost inconceivable task even today. Everything we know about Stonehenge suggests the influence of a culture in prehistoric times of which we know nothing. It was surely erected on the basis of a well-founded scientific knowledge.

The evidence that advanced cultures existed long before the dawn of homo sapiens ranges from the Ireland of Celtic Numinor to the mysterious continent of Australia, from Lascaux to Easter Island. Every script that has been deciphered, every myth that has been investigated, points to the conclusion that Man has appeared many times in the course of the past millions of years, has many times developed advanced cultures and has fallen from these heights due to cataclysmic catastrophes of the sort that created a 2.5 megaton explosion (25 times the power of the Hiroshima bomb) in Arizona 50,000 years ago.

It is not the authors' intention to prove anything in the scientific sense. What they have done is to establish beyond any doubt that we must look at Man's past with open minds. If we throw off the shackles of traditional views then perhaps the way is open for completely changing our knowledge of our own history and evolution, and for approaching a distinct notion of truth.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

LOUIS PAUWELS: Born in Paris in 1920. After the war he began his career in journalism. He became Editor in Chief of many journals and was a producer in French television. Since 1968 he has given up journalism and devoted his time to writing books. He has written four novels, two biographies, and four works of non-fiction including the massive bestseller, THE MORNING OF THE MAGICIANS. He is married to the comedienne Elina Labourdette and lives in the country on the outskirts of Paris with his three children.

JACQUES BERGIER: Born on August 8th, 1912. He has a degree in Science and is a qualified Chemical Engineer. During the war he was an active member of the French Resistance. His militant activities led to his arrest and deportation to Mathausen. He has written ten books and joined forces with Pauwels to write the MORNING OF THE MAGICIANS.

FROM SKY TO EARTH

By. Betty Jones

Betty Jones is in charge of the contact section for the United States: All reports to her from USA only to: Mrs. B. Jones, 636 10th Ave, W, Kalispell, Mont., 59901, U.S.A.

Mrs. B. Jones with one of her model Flying Saucers.

report conversing through automatic handwriting, There are many other ways which have been reported that unknown beings are trying to research us as they have for many many years. I have tried to trace these beings that have been reported coming to earth since the beginning of the world. I have done much research into the legends and myths and found many contain reports of space ships coming to earth with beings that have been contacting earth people. In early greek history there was mentioned a race of mythological "Titans" who were a race of mighty gods (giants) who held the heavens against their enemies in what the Greeks thought to be the earliest stages of the world. It has been suggested that these were really skymen who had super-natural powers and that these skymen came to earth to help nurture the human race. The Bible says that there..

" There were giants (Titans)? On earth in those days and when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown." In other places it also mentions giants who lived on earth.

Many legends of giants are connected with the Tower of Babel, in Mexico it tells of them trying to build a tower to reach heaven Sumerian sag tells of the tower as does Assyria, Babylonia, Greek and the Jews. I am sure there are many other legends that hint that they were giants that came from the son's of God.

Egyptian hieroglyphics as far back as 4500 BC. credit their god Osiris, for coming down from "an island in the sky" and teaching agriculture to the struggling nomadic mankind so stable civilisation could begin.

The mythologies of nearly all the ancient nations speak of such beings, Babylonian mythology pictured them as gods who conveyed messages from gods to men. Romans and Greek mythology has it genii, demi-gods, fauns nymphs, and naiads, who visited earth. Egypt and Eastern nations believed in such super-humans creatures.

There is also a people from Hokkaido, Japan that anthropologists say may be a separate race. There are only about 300 Ainu left, almost all of them are over 60.

The Ainu says that Kotan-Karakamui represents the total world as it is viewed by the Ainu. His spiritual embodiment came down to Hokkaido from the skies, established the Ainu, and then went back to the heavens. The Ainu tell of their beginning "They came from the skies," Their ancestors were the space beings the same who still live in the clouds and send those flying saucers to earth." Many of the Ainu elders believe in the legend of the Ainu's origin in space.

On a hill in the Saru valley is a monument which marks the spot where the first Ainu are supposed to have come to earth. This was taken from the National Geographical magazine which I receive.

All our earliest races have myths and legends telling of a race of sky beings coming down to earth in flying chariots, Bronze eggs, circles of fire and in clouds, and conversing with the people of earth.

In the 1950's a song was out called "Flying Saucer" which had a phrase like this: THE SPACEMEN HAVE GONE AGAIN BUT LOOK TO THE SKIES THE SAUCERS WILL ALWAYS BE THERE. "GOODBYE EARTH PEOPLE".

Hydrogen and water vapour Perhaps because of the Sun's ultraviolet radiation, or lightning discharges in the... earth's turbulent atmosphere or even the heat from the volcanoes that were erupting all over the face of the young seething planet, some of the atmospheric molecules broke up and reunited in different combinations. After these molecules were washed into the earth's seas they formed amino acids, organic compounds that are the building blocks of protein and of life. Other reactions in this "soup" formed the forerunner chemicals of nucleic acids, which in turn are the building blocks of DNA The master molecule that directs the production of protein in living cells.

Finally, after millions of years and countless interactions a long molecule was born that had an extraordinary capability; it could replicate probably by breaking into sections that attracted other chemicals that in turn became duplicates of the original.. molecules. With the emergence of these genesis molecules biological evolution was on its way.

Two women and a man from Wincanton also claimed similar experiences. (see issue 3.) In huntingdon around the same period a woman claimed that a man in black persuaded her to sell her soul to him and a man in black was reported to have traded the soul of a Cambridge student for a doctor of Divinity degree.

A young Cambridgeshire woman claimed to have attended witches feast at which a man in black sat at the head of the table and a group of Somerset women also claimed to be witches and that they attended feasts regularly with a man in black in charge who baptized with oil the portrait of a woman they wished to harm and brought meat cakes, and wine for the feasts. In Salem, Massachusetts a man in black was frequently mentioned during the famous witch trials there, this same man was spoken of often by the Indians.

It is interesting to note the similarity of the Essex woman's story and that of the Betty and Barney Hill case when Betty claimed that when the examining alien pushed a needle into her stomach she felt intense pain which only vanished when the leader passed his hand over her eyes. Also, the pricking is similar to the Villas Boas claim that his skin was pricked by some sort of cup that they held under his chin. The talk of selling souls is due probably to selling themselves for experimentation.

Madam du Barry the famous French courtesan of King Louis XV of France had encounters with a dark skinned young man who gave her prophecies about herself and told her that the last time she would see him would serve as a reversal of her fortunes. When Madame du Barry and the King were leaving for the palace of Versailles she looked towards a gate and saw the strange man leaning against the railings, the coach was stopped and the grounds searched, but they found not a single trace of the man or that anyone had been there and shortly afterwards Madame du Barry fell from grace and was banished from the French Court and was later executed during the French revolution.

In 1848 the world underwent a rapid period of change in which revolutions and assassinations as mysterious as that of JFK were carried out. Also Spiritualism was reborn (a method of communication?), The MIB assumed a new disguise.

In 1862 a large crowd gathered around St. Peter's church in Philadelphia to see the figure of a man dressed in black walking round the brick portions of the steeple the figure has been seen in recent years also. While we are on the subject, famous ghost hunter Elliot O'Donnell investigated a haunted house where among the ghosts seen was one of a man with a dark complexion. (TO BE CONTINUED).

INTO THE UNKNOWN (SECTION)

"I believe everyone is psychic to a certain degree. Women possibly more so than men. When women talk about "intuition" and "hunches" and are proved right they ARE. And in fact-Psychic. They are in fact psychic. I have only had a few ESPs, and they all appeared in the form of a dream. The first one I had I remember was a vivid dream, a ship had sunk, and next morning-it had, in mid Atlantic. My second premonition type dream I had was of a small light aircraft-a two seater which crashed in some bushes killing the occupants on board. It was there in the Daily Mirror the very next morning. A small column which read of a plane which crashed killing those on board. Another dream I had in 1971 was very vivid dream and rather disturbing involving Elvis Presley. Why I should dream about him I really don't know since then I had no keen interest in the fellow and never watched any of his films; as I know that maybe TV actors sometimes play on your subconscious after watching them, causing you to dream about them. Anyway... He was in his own private chartered plane and just as it was flying over the English channel, it came down and crashed into the sea, killing everyone. The way it happened was so vivid and clear in the dream that I can still remember it now, after a year. (Editor's note: Maybe it will turn out to be a new film Elvis is making). The most recent premonition dream I had occurred about 6 months ago I stepped onto a cabin boat, and the next thing I remember was going round and round in the boat so fast I felt sick and giddy as if caught up in a whirlpool. The waves were furiously ponding the boat. But the thing I remember most was giddiness, as it went out of control. It was real to me. I could have really been there. I couldn't believe it when I read in the Saturday paper next morning (PTO)...

on the back page next morning that 5 people were rescued from a crippled cabin cruiser off the coast of Dorset, some I believe drowned. It used to happen every Friday evening, the same night I dreamed about it.

Another strange aspect of my ESP is, I find that when I think of someone, invariably, within a few minutes they walk into the room. That happens to me quite often, and I'm sure it has to others too.

Janet Busell (1972)

FOOTNOTE: It seems strange that Janet's dream of disaster seemed to be only a few hours ahead of the morning news. I wonder why? We do so hope that the other dream of Elvis stays just a dream, and does not predict the future, which I feel certain it doesn't since Janet's dreams are only at least 12 hours ahead. - Editor.

SEARCHING FOR THE LOCH NESS MONSTER

Introduction by

Y. Lee.

I have my own hypothesis on what the creature is and how it came to inhabit the loch.

The latest findings on how various continents and countries came into being put forward the theory the land masses move around on plates and very slowly have moved across the face of the earth and in some places have crashed into each other. This theory on how the top part of Scotland became joined to the rest of Britain. If one looks closely at a map of Scotland one can see the 'join' from coast to coast starting on the west coast we have Loch Linnhe then moving north east we follow the river Lochy into Loch Lechy then Loch Oich and along the river Oich into Loch Ness and finally down to the coast along the river Ness. Now it would be quite feasible that with all the prehistoric creatures that roamed the seas at that time, that some became trapped in these series of Lochs that were formed. I believe there may have been more than one such species thus entrapped and surviving to this day. They are most likely to have undergone some kind of change, over the millions of years and evolved into a creature more adapted to life in the vast depths of Loch Ness.

The most recent sighting was of a creature which I would say was similar to the Ichthyosaurus of prehistoric time. The prehistoric Ichthyosaurs were air-breathing creatures but evolution could have changed that. The plesiosaurus is another creature which could fit descriptions given from sightings. Possibly a changed Plesiosaurus from the one that existed at the beginning of time.

Scots spreading monstrous tale

THE LOCH NESS 'MONSTER' AS PHOTOGRAPHED IN 1955

From the PROVINCE, Canada, March 9, 1972. via Gene Duplantier. oOo

LONDON-As if one famous monster were not enough for a country's tourist trade the Scots now are laying claim to two. Five "sightings" in the last 14 months of a creature similar to the elusive beast of Loch Ness are recorded in a report published by a survey team set up in 1970 to investigate mysterious doings in Loch Morar, about 48 miles west of Loch Ness in Inverness County. The witnesses variously described "two-hump sightings; a prolonged sighting of a humped back, head and neck; and two sightings of unexplained wakes apparently caused by a submerged animal," says the Loch Morar report. One of the wakes was seen at close range by a team member, a biologist who was out on the loch in a boat. The other was seen by a local boatman whom the team describes previously as "a confirmed skeptic concerning reports of the Morar 'monster.'"

The survey, carried out by university students and supported largely by donations, has accepted 33 sightings of the Morar monster, nick-named "Morag". Rumors of its presence go back to 1887 and it is said the loch may harbour a whole family of monsters.

HE HOAXED THE WORLD

Brought to light on Anglia Television, and other net works on Friday September 6th 1972 and continued from issue number 3 of CNK.....

Rex: Dutta was asked on TV if he was disappointed that cover of his book showed a picture believed to be a hoax by Alex Birch...

REX: Yes I am, but I'm not terribly surprised, now they are going to investigate this much further, than just this glib report.

Mr. Dutta went on to say that several things in the film that did not come out. First, he said, the trees are on this and by triangulation of the trees, we got the height. Mr. Dutta remarked how when pressure is brought to bear on people who afterwards say they faked it. Anglia interviewer HESTA asked: "By whom?" (meaning, who bears the pressure) Mr. Dutta:

"You must not force me on that, do try and read the book. Any saucer researcher will tell you about these things". Asked if he'd seen a saucer: "Yes I have! Many a time and many a photograph and many a film." Mr. Dutta said that this hoax was to be investigated at a meeting held in Caxton Hall, Westminster at that time. Mr. Dutta then told Hesta a story:

"Let me tell you some of these glib stories of people who write them off. At this moment, 200 miles north of Sydney at Tari in Australia, a Saucer has been coming back at 7.10am precisely-at 15 minutes precisely, at 10,000 ft. Hundreds of people have been there. TV crews have been there to film the whole thing for their shows. Illustrators have put in on front pages and now this STUPID explanation, the word stupid is justified- IT WAS THE PLANET VENUS!

now, how in the name of truth can you expect Venus to move position, only be at 10,000ft, only appear at 7.10 and the Royal Australian Air Force sent up planes to investigate-you mean NONE of them know what Venus is like!?

These are the sort of explanations that people give and honestly don't hold water. I'm delighted to have the chance of saying it" Mr. Dutta then thanked Hesta and that concluded the programme. (note: This transcript slightly shortened, but not out of context.)

EXCURSIONS

WORLD

By Frederick C. Sculthorp

With an Introduction and an Appendix on Psychic Excursions by Dr. Karl E. Müller
President of International Spiritualist Federation

Frederick C. Sculthorp tells his remarkable story of how his faculty of conscious astral projection gradually developed, enabling him to visit the Spirit World and to bring back clear memories of his experiences. His description of the scenes witnessed during his excursions, and lived through many times over a period of more than twenty years, is of absorbing interest. He shows himself to be a keen observer with a compassionate heart and his descriptions show a wealth of detail never reported before. The reader thus gets a clear insight into the similarities and also of the differences of life on earth and life in the Beyond after death.

providing knowledge and teachings helpful in every-day life. That he had experiences connected with the exalted being of Jesus will endear this book to many.

For those not familiar with such psychic experiences Dr. Karl E. Müller gives a survey of the subject as considered from a historical and a scientific angle showing the many aspects of this important field of psychic investigation, also throwing some light on the psychic constitution of Man.
